Office of the Census Superintendent in Mysore,

Dated. Bangalore. 18th February 1892.

From

The Census Superintendent in Mysore

To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore

Sir

I have the honor to report that the Census compilation work is almost over and that my Assistants Messrs B. Rama-swamiengar and S. N. Ramaswamiengar will be available from the 1st Proximo for such other duty as the Government may be pleased to assign to them

2. The abilities and character of the above officers are well known to Government. But it may be permitted to me here to bring to the notice of Government that the intelligence experience and steady & persevering industry industry of the one, and the verve, force of character and ready & quick grasp of intricate details of the other have enabled them to give me most valuable and timely assistance in the efficient and successful performance of the special work entrusted to me, and I am glad of this opportunity of recording that they are entitled to my best thanks.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant
